

COMMUNITY COUNCILS IN HIGHLAND

Introduction

Community Councils were first established in Scotland following the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973. Thereafter, the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1994, which produced the current system of unitary Local Authorities, made provision for the continuation of Community Councils. Under the legislation, every local community in Scotland is entitled to petition their Local Authority to establish a Community Council in their area.

Community Councils in each Local Authority area are created through a Scheme of Establishment and each Scheme sets out the framework through which Community Councils are to operate.

This Draft Scheme is based upon the model Scheme published by the Scottish Government in March 2009 for use by Local Authorities. The Scheme encompasses a suite of documents which include:

- Standard Community Council constitution (appendix 3)
- Standard Community Council standing orders (appendix 4)
- Code of Conduct for Community Councillors (appendix 5)
- Standard financial templates (appendix 6)
- Standard election documentation (appendix 7)

These documents are designed to support the operation of Community Councils across the Highland area.

Scheme for the Establishment of Community Councils in Highland

DRAFT for CONSULTATION

October 2010

1. Background

- 1.1 The Highland Council, in accordance with the terms of Section 22 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1994 has adopted the following Scheme for the Establishment of Community Councils within the Highland Council area and has revoked the eight former Schemes made by the former district Councils, and adopted by Highland Council upon its formation in 1996, with effect from (provisionally) 1st April 2011.

2. Statutory Purposes

- 2.1 The statutory purposes of Community Councils established under the this Scheme are set out in Section 51 (2) of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973, as follows: -

“In addition to any other purpose which a Community Council may pursue, the general purpose of a Community Council shall be to ascertain, co-ordinate and express to the local authorities for its area, and to public authorities, the views of the community which it represents, in relation to matters for which those authorities are responsible, and to take such action in the interests of that community as appears to it to be expedient and practicable”

3. The Role and Responsibilities of Community Councils

3.1 General Role

The general purpose of Community Councils is to act as a voice for their local area. This will involve them articulating the views and concerns of local people in their area on a wide range of issues of public concern and making representations to the Highland Council, other public sector bodies and private agencies on matters within their sphere of interest.

Community Councils have key roles in consultations on planning applications and liquor licence applications.

Planning:

- Community Councils will be consulted on the submission of planning applications for proposed developments that are categorised as being of national or major scale or of significance to the community. Community Councillors may also be invited to attend events held by applicants to inform members of the community about the development proposed prior to submission of a planning application. Community Councils may also request to be consulted on specific applications once the application has been submitted.
- Once a planning application is submitted it will be recorded on the weekly list of applications and the e-planning website compiled by the planning authority and made available to Community Councils. If the Community Council wishes to be consulted on an application not directly referred to it by the planning team, it must timeously contact the planning officer concerned.
- To support Community Councillors in this role, the Council will make efforts to brief Community Councillors on new planning legislation when it is enacted. Community Councillors should make themselves available to attend such training sessions where reasonably possible.

Licensing:

- From time to time the Licensing Board will also consult on policy issues and will notify community councils of all new premises licenses and major variation applications.

Community Councils may be consulted on any other matters by the Highland Council, other public sector bodies and private agencies.

Community Councils are expected to participate in community planning arrangements at a local level such as ward forums.

Community Councils may carry out other activities that are in the general interests of the communities they represent, provided these activities fall within the objects of their Constitution and the terms of the Council's Scheme for the Establishment of Community Councils, hereinafter respectively referred to as 'the Scheme'.

There should be mutual engagement in the establishment of working relationships with the Highland Council and other agencies.

3.2 Responsibilities

In carrying out their activities Community Councils and their members must at all times adhere to the law and to the terms of the Council's Scheme , their Constitution and Standing Orders and the Community Councillors' Code of Conduct (Appendix 5).

Each Community Council is required to:

Adopt a Constitution at Appendix 3, based upon the Model Constitution. This is to encourage and maintain consistency for all Community Councils and ensure that each Community Council is appropriately regulated. Each Community Council's Constitution is required to be approved by the Highland Council. Any changes to the constitution of a Community Council must be approved by the Highland Council.

Adopt the Model Standing Orders at Appendix 4 in order to ensure that the proceedings of each Community Council is properly structured, that items of business relevant to the community are properly debated and decisions reached in a democratic manner.

Maintain proper financial records in accordance with the templates at Appendix 6 subject to a minimum of a cashbook, bank statements, invoices and/or receipts. It is also expected that written financial reports will be presented at each Community Council meeting. Standard templates for presenting financial information at the year end must be used.

Inform the community of the work and decisions of the Community Council by posting agendas and minutes of meetings in public places, such as libraries, websites and notice boards.

Ensure that the Community Council is accessible by the wider community and, subject to the provisions contained within Data Protection Legislation, make available contact details of Community Council office bearers.

Adopt Highland Council's Child Protection Policy for Community Groups, where the Community Council intends to involve children in its activities.

3.3 Equalities

Communities Councils must comply with equal opportunities legislation that makes it unlawful to discriminate against persons or groups on the grounds of race, gender, gender recognition, disability, age, sexual orientation, and religion or belief.

Community Councils should consider, in particular, how they can contribute towards promoting equality on the basis of the above named grounds, whether in relation to their role advising on planning applications, running community facilities, improving the quality of life through local community safety projects, ensuring meetings are held in accessible venues or otherwise.

Community Councils should recognise and value diversity in their membership and in their communities, and ensure that equality of opportunity be given to every participant to have their knowledge, opinion, skill and experience taken into account.

3.4 Representing the Community

Community Councils have a duty under statute to represent the views of their local community. It is essential that these views be demonstrated to be representative of the community and that they reflect the broad spectrum of opinion and interests of all sections of the community.

In order to fulfil their responsibilities to be effective and representative, Community Councils: -

- Should be aware of the National Standards for Community Engagement available on the Scottish Government website, the link to the document at the time of publishing this Scheme being:
www.scotland.gov.uk/Topics/Built-Environment/regeneration/engage/standards
- Shall identify, in consultation with the Highland Council, recognised consultative mechanisms to validate their views and devise strategies to secure greater involvement by all sectors of the community.
- Will make particular efforts to encourage young people and other under-represented groups to attend or participate in Community Council meetings and to ensure equality of opportunity in the way the Community Council carries out its functions.
- Seek to broaden both representation and expertise by promoting the Associate Membership of the Community Council of persons for specific projects/issues.

4. Community Council Areas within the Highland Council Area

4.1 The Highland Council has produced a list of named Community Council areas and a map or maps that define their boundaries. The list of community areas is attached as Appendix 1 to the Scheme. Detailed maps of these areas can be found on the Highland Council's website or through the appropriate area office.

5. Membership of Community Councils

5.1 Membership numbers of Community Councils shall vary across the area however the minimum membership level of a Community Council shall be seven and the maximum thirteen. The formula for determining individual Community Council membership levels is as follows:

- Each Community Council shall have a core membership of 7
- Each Community Council shall have one additional member per thousand of population up to the stated maximum
- In any community council area where the population density is less than the Highland average of 8.8 residents per square km, that community council shall have one additional member, subject to the maximum of thirteen members not being exceeded
- No community council shall have a membership greater than the maximum permitted membership of 13

The membership numbers for each Community Council based on the latest available population figures at the time this Scheme was drafted are set out at Appendix 2.

5.2 No person shall vote in a Community Council election or stand for election as a community councillor unless he or she is named in the electoral register or supplementary electoral register and will have attained the age of 16 years on the date fixed by the Highland Council for the Community Council election.

5.3 Community councillors and candidates for Community Council membership must reside within and be named on the electoral register or supplementary electoral register for the particular Community Council area.

5.4 Provision shall be made for non-voting Associate and Ex-Officio Membership as set out below. Such persons will not be counted in terms of meeting a quorum, or towards the total number of Community Council members.

5.5 Associate Members

Associate members may be appointed by a majority vote of a Community Council where there may be a need for individuals with particular skills or knowledge.

These individuals shall not have voting rights. Associate members may serve for a fixed period as determined by the Community Council or for the term of office of the Community Council that has appointed them whichever is the shorter.

Associate members may include representation from other constituted local voluntary organisations and persons under the age of 16.

5.6 Ex-Officio Members

Members of the Highland Council and members of the Scottish, United Kingdom and European Parliaments shall be ineligible to remain or become community councillors, or to stand for election to a Community Council. Members of the aforementioned bodies whose wards or constituencies fall wholly or partly within the geographical area of the Community Council, shall be deemed ex-officio members of the Community Council. Ex-officio members shall have no voting rights on the Community Council.

6. Community Council Elections

6.1.3 Any Community Council member who no longer resides within that Community Council area or whose name has been removed from the electoral register for that community council area, will be deemed to have resigned from that Community Council on the date on which he or she ceased to be resident in the Community Council area or the date on which his or her name was removed from the electoral register for that area, whichever is the earlier.

6.2 Nominations and Elections

6.2.1 Background

- When an elected Community Council member submits his or her resignation;
- When a member ceases to be resident in or on the electoral role for that Community Council area;
- When a member is disqualified from holding office. (Section 11).

Should a vacancy or vacancies arise on a Community Council between elections:

- the Community Council must inform the named Highland Council officer.
- Subject to the following paragraph, should the vacancy or vacancies result in the number of elected community councillors falling below HALF of the maximum permitted membership, then such vacancy or vacancies shall be filled by an interim election which the Highland Council will administer.
- If the number of elected community councillors falls below HALF of the maximum permitted membership less than six months prior to a scheduled election then there will be no interim election at that time but the Community Council may continue to operate with the agreement of the Highland Council.
- For all other vacancies, the Community Council may fill the vacancy either:
 - a) through co-option provided the number of co-opted members does not exceed one third of the total permitted membership of the

Community Council. OR

- b) by itself undertaking an interim postal ballot as per the standard election procedure set out earlier.

6.3 Co-option to Community Councils

- Notice of any proposed co-option of a member or members shall appear as an item on the agenda for the Community Council meeting which will be sent to all of the Community Council's members at least 7 days prior to the meeting when the matter will be decided.
- Co-opted members must be eligible for membership of the Community Council in terms of paragraphs 5.2 and 5.3 of this Scheme.
- Members cannot be co-opted on to the Community Council except by a majority of no less than two thirds of the elected (general and interim) community councillors present and voting.
- Co-opted members shall have full voting rights, with the exception of voting on co-option of members, and will serve until the next round of elections (general and interim).
- The number of co-opted members may not exceed a THIRD of the total possible Community Council membership.

The business of the meeting following the first election under this Scheme will include the adoption of the Constitution and Standing Orders set out at Appendices 3 and 4 of this Scheme. Thereafter, the first meeting following each election will include the appointment of office bearers and any outstanding business matters from the outgoing Community Council.
- 7.2 The frequency of meetings will be determined by each Community Council, subject to a minimum of one annual general meeting and 6 ordinary meetings being held each year. The annual general meeting shall be held before the end of June.

- 7.3 The quorum for Community Council meetings shall be one third of the total possible voting membership of a Community Council, or 3 voting members, whichever is the greater.
- 7.4 An outline for the content of business that Community Councils should adhere to when holding ordinary, special and annual general meetings is contained within the Standing Orders.

8. Liaison with the Highland Council

- 8.1 In order to facilitate the effective functioning of Community Councils, the Highland Council will identify a named officer to act as a Liaison Officer with each Community Council. Meeting agendas will be distributed 7 days prior to the date of the meeting. Draft minutes and agendas will be circulated to Community Council members (including ex officio and associate members), and the named Highland Council Officer.

A certified financial report (as detailed in paragraph 9.2 of this Scheme) will be presented to the Community Council's annual general meeting and submitted to Highland Council before the end of June each year in the prescribed format set out at Appendix 6 of this Scheme.
- 9.2 The Financial Report of each Community Council shall be independently examined and certified by at least one examiner appointed by the Community Council, who is not a member of that Community Council and has no personal or professional relationship with the Treasurer. A copy of the certified financial report shall be submitted for approval at the Community Council's annual general meeting and shall be forwarded immediately after the annual general meeting to the appropriate named Highland Council official.
- 9.3 The appropriate named Highland Council official may at his or her discretion, and in consultation with the Council's Chief Financial Officer, require the Community Council to produce such of its financial records - cashbook, bank statements, invoices and/or receipts records - as may be required to verify the financial statement.
- 9.4 Each Community Council shall have the power to secure resources for schemes, projects and all other purposes consistent with its functions.

minimum flat rate of £ (to be determined by the Highland Council) with an additional minimal -p. (to be determined by the Highland Council) per head of population.

- 9.7 The Highland Council shall facilitate advice and assistance to Community Councils and arrange for the establishment of a training programme for Community Councils on the duties and responsibilities of Community Council office bearers, the role of Community Councils, the functions of the Highland Council and other relevant topics.

10. Liability of Community Council Members

- 10.1 A local scheme of insurance liability and property cover is available through the Highland Council's Insurance Manager . The insurance liability cover, in standard terms, will become effective no later than the end of the next business day following the Community Council requesting insurance cover from Highland Council,. Insurance cover not in standard terms will be granted on a discretionary basis and may take longer to obtain.
- 10.2 It is the responsibility of the Community Council to have appropriate insurance cover for all assets of the Community Council, for the actions of the Community Council and for the actions of individual Community Council members while acting as such. Advice on this can be obtained from the Highland Council.
- 10.3 Property and other assets belonging to the Community Council shall be vested in the Chair, Secretary and Treasurer of the Community Council and their successors in these respective offices as Trustees for the Community Council.

11. Disqualification of Membership

- 11.1 Any Community Council member who no longer resides within that Community Council area and/or whose name has been removed from the electoral register for that Community Council area is deemed to have resigned from that Community Council on the date on which he or she ceased to be resident in the Community Council area or the date on which his or her name was removed from the electoral register for that community council area, whichever is the earlier. This excludes associate members appointed to the Community Council and ex-officio members.

11.2 If any member of a Community Council fails throughout a period of six consecutive months to attend a meeting, he or she will, unless the failure is due to some reason approved by the Community Council, cease to be a member of the Community Council.

12. Establishment of Community Councils Under this Scheme

12.1 Where it has been resolved by the Highland Council that an existing Community Council shall continue to operate within existing boundaries, then with effect from (provisionally) 1st April 2011, said Community Council shall be required to operate within the terms of this Scheme.

12.2 Any funds, assets and liabilities pertaining to any existing Community Councils as at provisionally 31 March 2011, whose boundaries shall be substantially changed or amended shall transfer proportionately to any new Community Councils covering their area. The division of funds, assets and liabilities between the new Community Councils will be made on an equitable basis and if agreement cannot be reached, the Highland Council shall be the final arbiter.

12.3 Details outlining when the first elections under this Scheme will take place are found in Section Six of this Scheme.

12.4 Notwithstanding the above, where a Community Council is not formed or has formed and been dissolved in terms of paragraph 13 below, should twenty or more electors wish the establishment of a Community Council for that area, these electors shall submit a requisition to the Highland Council in accordance with Section 52(7) of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973, on receipt of which the Highland Council shall arrange for elections to be held in accordance with Section Six of this Scheme.

12.5 Once established under this Scheme a Community Council shall conduct itself in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme.

13. Dissolution of a Community Council

- 13.1 If the Community Council by a two-thirds majority of the total voting membership decides at any time that it is necessary or advisable to dissolve, it shall agree a date for a public meeting to be held to discuss the proposed resolution to dissolve. Not less than ten days prior to the date of such meeting a public notice will be published in the Community Council area giving intention of the proposal to dissolve. If the resolution is supported by a majority of those persons present and qualified to vote, and is subsequently approved by the Highland Council, the Community Council shall be deemed to be dissolved and all assets remaining, subject to the approval of the Highland Council, after the satisfaction of any proper debts or liabilities shall transfer to the Highland Council who shall hold same in Trust for a future Community Council representing that area. - 13.3 Where for any reason, the number of Community Council members falls below the minimum specified in this Scheme the Highland Council may, by suspending the Constitution of the Community Council, cause the Community Council to be dissolved and in this event, the procedures for the establishment of a new Community Council, identified in the immediately preceding paragraph hereof, shall apply for the establishment of a new Community Council.

14. Review of the Scheme of Establishment for Community Councils

- 14.1 This Scheme supersedes the previous Scheme set out under the Local Government (Scotland) Acts. The revocation of that Scheme is without prejudice to the validity of all decisions reached and implemented under it.
- 14.2 The Highland Council will review this Scheme of Establishment for Community Councils in Highland in each Local Government electoral cycle.
- 14.3 This will not preclude, where necessary, minor amendments to this Scheme in the intervening years. Minor amendments will require the approval of the Highland Council.

Code of Conduct For Community Councillors

Background

The Code of Conduct for Community Councillors is based largely on the Code of Conduct for Local Authority Councillors and relevant public bodies as provided for in The Ethical Standards in Public Life etc (Scotland) Act 2000.

Community Councillors, as elected representatives of their communities, have a responsibility to make sure that they are familiar with, and that their actions comply with, the principles set out in this Code of Conduct. The Code of Conduct and its principles, shall apply to all Community Councillors and those representing the Community Council wherever and whenever they are acting in an official capacity as Community Councillors. These principles are as follows:

- Service to the Community (Public Service)
- Selflessness
- Integrity
- Objectivity
- Accountability and Stewardship
- Openness
- Honesty
- Leadership
- Respect

Details of the requirements under these principles are set out in Section two. Section one of the Code sets out Community Councillors' responsibilities in relation to Declaration of Interests.

SECTION ONE

Declaration of Interests

General

The key principles of the Code, especially those that specify integrity, honesty and openness, are given further practical effect by the requirement for you to declare interests at meetings which you attend. The rules on declaration of interest are intended to produce transparency in regard to interests which might influence, or be thought to influence, your actions as a community councillor.

“Interests” includes your financial interests, your non-financial interests and the interests, financial and non financial of other persons who are related to you or connected to you by means of close friendship, an employer/employee relationship or similar.

In the event that you have an “interest” as defined above in any matter, which could give rise to any person reasonably believing that you have a conflict of interest in that matter, you should declare that interest at the earliest stage possible. Where the interest is financial, you should withdraw from the meeting until discussion of the matter has concluded. Where that interest is non financial, you must make a decision as to whether to participate in the discussion. You must consider the relationship between the interest which has been declared and the particular matter to be considered.

It is your responsibility to make decisions about whether you have to declare an interest or make a judgement as to whether a declared interest prevents you from taking part in any discussions or voting. You are in the best position to assess your personal circumstances and to judge how these circumstances affect your role as a community councillor in regard to a particular matter.

In making decisions for which you are personally responsible, you are advised to err on the side of caution. You may feel able to state truthfully that an interest would no influence your role as a Community Councillor in discussion or decision making but you must also keep in mind that the test to be applied is whether a member of the public, acting reasonably, would think that a particular interest in relation to any matter being considered by the Community Council could influence your role as a Community Councillor.

Planning Matters

Community Councils will be consulted on the submission of Planning applications for proposed developments that are categorised as being of national or major scale or of significance to the community. Community Councillors may also be invited to attend events held by applicants to inform members of the community about the development proposed prior to submission of a planning application. In dealing with interested parties in relation to planning applications, Community Councillors must pay particular regard to the principles set out in this Code.

Once a planning application is submitted it will be recorded on the weekly list of applications and the e-planning website compiled by the planning authority and made available to Community Councils. If the Community Council wishes to be consulted on an application not directly referred to it by the planning team, it must timeously contact the planning officer concerned.

To support Community Councillors in this role, the Council will make efforts to brief Community Councillors on new planning legislation when it is enacted. Community Councillors should make themselves available to attend such training sessions where reasonably possible.

If you have an interest, whether financial, non-financial, or personal, in the outcome of a decision on a planning application to be considered at a Community Council meeting, you must declare that interest and refrain from taking part in making the decision.

When making a planning application for your own property or acting on behalf of an applicant, you must not take any further part in the decision making process following submission of the planning application.

As part of your role in planning applications, you are obliged to recognise planning legislation and recognise that the Highland Council is bound to act under the terms of this legislation.

Liquor Licensing

This is similar to Planning and the Community Council will be notified of all new premises and major variation applications

If you have an interest, whether financial, non-financial, or personal, in the outcome of a decision on a licensing application to be considered at a Community Council meeting, you must declare that interest and refrain from taking part in making the decision.

When making a licensing application for your own property or acting on behalf of an applicant, you must not take any further part in the decision making process following submission of the application.

As part of your role in licensing applications, you are obliged to recognise the relevant legislation and recognise that the Highland Licensing Board is bound to act under the terms of this legislation.

SECTION TWO

Service to the Community

As a Community Councillor you have a duty to act in the interests of the local community, which you have been elected or nominated to represent. You also have a duty to act in accordance with the remit of the Council's Scheme, as set out by the Highland Council under the terms of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973 and 1994.

You have a duty to establish and reflect, through the Community Council, the views of the community as a whole, on any issue, irrespective of personal opinion.

You should ensure that you are, within reason, accessible to your local community and local residents. Various mechanisms to allow the general community to express their views, i.e. suggestion boxes, community surveys, opinion polls should, where possible, be made available.

Selflessness

You have a duty to take decisions solely in terms of the interest of the community that you represent. You must not use your position as a Community Councillor to gain financial, material, political or other personal benefit for yourself, family or friends.

Integrity

You must not place yourself under any financial or other obligation to any individual or organisation that might reasonably be thought to influence you in your representation of your community.

You should not accept gifts or hospitality that may be seen to influence or be intended to influence your opinion or judgement. The offer and/or receipt of any gifts, regardless of form, should always be reported to and noted by the Secretary of the Community Council.

Objectivity

In all your decisions and opinions as a Community Councillor, you must endeavour to represent the overall views of your community, taking account of information which is provided to you or is publicly available, assessing its merit and gathering information as appropriate, whilst laying aside personal opinions or preferences.

You may be appointed or nominated by your Community Council to serve as a member of another representative body. You should ensure that this Code of Conduct is observed when carrying out the duties of the other body.

You are free to have political and/or religious affiliations; however you must ensure that you represent the interests of your community and Community Council and not the interests of a particular political party or other group.

Accountability and Stewardship

You are accountable for the decisions and actions that you take on behalf of your community through the Community Council. You must ensure that the Community Council uses its resources prudently and in accordance with the law.

Community Councillors will individually and collectively ensure that the business of the Community Council is conducted according to the Highland Council's Scheme.

Community Councillors will individually and collectively ensure that annual accounts are produced showing the financial undertakings of the Community Council as set out in the Highland Council's Scheme for the Establishment of Community Councils. They must also ensure that all resources are used efficiently, effectively and fairly and are used strictly for the purposes of Community Council business and for no other purpose.

Minutes of Meetings recording all actions and decisions made should be produced and circulated to all members of the Community Council as soon as possible after each meeting.

Any breach of the Council's Scheme may be reported to the Highland Council to determine what action, if necessary, should be taken.

Openness

You have a duty to be open about your decisions, actions and representations, giving reasons for these where appropriate. You should be able to justify your decisions and be confident that you have not been unduly influenced by the views and/or opinions of others.

If you have dealings with the Media, members of the public, or others not directly involved in your Community Council, you should ensure that an explicit distinction is made between the expression of your personal views and opinions from any views or statement made about or on behalf of the Community Council.

Honesty

You have a duty to act honestly. You also have an obligation to work within the law at all times, this includes acting within planning legislation. You must declare any private interest relating to your Community Council duties and take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the interest of the community and the Community Council.

Leadership

You have a duty to promote and support the principles of this Code of Conduct by leadership and example, to maintain and strengthen the community's trust and confidence in the integrity of the Community Council and its members in representing the views and needs of the local area. You must also promote social inclusion and challenge discrimination in any form.

You should act to assist the Community Council, as far as possible, in the interest of the whole community that it serves. Where particular interest groups' concerns are in conflict with those of other groups or other areas you should help to ensure that the Community Council is aware of them.

Respect

You must respect fellow members of your Community Council and those that you represent, treating them with courtesy, respect and in a non-discriminatory manner at all times. This should extend to any person, regardless of their position, you have dealings with in your capacity as a Community Councillor.

Recognition should be given to the contribution of everyone participating in the work of the Community Council. You must comply with Equal Opportunities legislation and ensure that equality of opportunity be given to every participant to have their knowledge, opinion, skill and experience taken into account.

You should ensure that confidential material, including details about individuals, is treated as such and that it is handled with dignity and discretion and is not used for personal, malicious or corrupt purposes.
