I have a Query - which is not 'directly' related to topics discussed tonight - Any implications - Any Actions that planning Authorities 'can take?' on derelict, run-down, eyesore properties within Wick Town.

I refer particularly - Site to Mount Hoolay House - Shore Lane The (criminal) owners have absconded and disappeared. This "fine" house is a grade II listed property now heavily vandalised - fires have been started and it is possibly a question of time - before it is completely destroyed. - arson attacks eg. Do the 'planning Authority' or 'Council' have powers to 'take over' - ownership and thus save this fine house?
