Subject: HWLDP-MIR Consultation

Dear Sirs,

Further to the letter of 28 August 2009 from your Mr Malcolm MacLeod to my elderly father Alexander MacKenzie of Lady Margaret Drive, Corpach and with particular regard to the land on Cooper Street Plockton. I would like to express my concern at the various representations received from the Plockton Community Council and their lack of clarity in terms of any expression of self interest. Whilst the amount of work (often unappreciated) such bodies undertake on the Communities behalf, it is essential that any issues of self interest are clearly highlighted. It is only too clear, with the dismay of the General Public as to the recent misuse of power at Westminster which has dominated recent headlines, that such actions must be changed.

Also inaccurate statements claiming 'majority' views must clearly be challenged and in any account not repeated by HRC as fact without associated proof.

I would therefore respectfully request that HWLDP-MIR clearly highlight the safeguards to prevent such anomalies and subsequent wrongful influence.

Yours Faithfully,

Graeme A MacKenzie
