

Dewey overview

000	Generalities Encyclopaedias and other books that cover a wide range of subjects; computers
100	Philosophy and Psychology Books about feelings; animal rights; mysteries
200	Religion
300	Sociology - How we live in the world Families; relationships; government; people who help us; recycling; pollution; education; communications and transport; customs
400	Languages Dictionaries
500	Science Pure science; maths; astronomy; the earth, volcanoes, weather; dinosaurs; nature - plants and wild animals
600	Technology - How things work Machines; medicine, health, and the human body; energy; roads and bridges; cars, boats, planes, space travel; farming, domesticated animals, pets; cooking, food, nutrition; home making; manufacturing; building
700	Arts and Recreation Architecture - houses and homes, churches; painting, drawing etc and artists; crafts; photography; music; games and sport
800	Literature Poetry, plays etc
900	Geography and History Atlases; explorers; countries; famous people; history
B	Famous people

Where would you expect to find..?

Look at the Dewey overview sheet and write down the number of the section in which you would expect to find books on the subjects listed below.

Then look up the subject in Where's That Book and write down the exact number - this is where you would look for the book on the library shelves.

	Dewey overview	Where's that book?
1. Swimming
2. Dogs
3. France
4. Trees
5. Recycling
6. Volcanoes
7. Islam
8. Playing the recorder
9. Cars
10. Frogs
11. Police service
12. Senses
13. Colours
14. World War II
15. Pollution