MICROFILM READERS All the local newspapers in Inverness Library, except for recent issues, are available on microfilm.

Microfilm readers are very easy to use, but please ask the library staff if you need any help. Please rewind your reels after use, ready for the next person .

Microfilm readers cannot be booked but during busy hours time may be limited to one hour per person.

COPIES FROM MICROFILM Inverness Library has a Microfilm Reader-Printer which makes copies on A4 or A3 paper. The charge for this service is 75p per article. We are happy to post copies to you as it may not always be possible to make copies while you wait.

Please complete a form (available at the desk) when you require a printout.

INDEX Go to www.ambaile.org.uk for a searchable index to the Inverness Journal (1807-1849); Inverness Advertiser (1849-1885); Scottish Highlander (1885-1898); Inverness Courier (1879,1898-1901,1920-1939); John O'Groat Journal (1836-1887)

National Newspapers

THE TIMES (1939—)

There is an annual PRINTED INDEX to The Times shelved in the Reference Room, by the Yellow Pages, as well as the monthly indexes. Indexes dating back to 1939 are in the Stack—please ask the Staff for these.

Please note that we do not stock The Sunday Times.

We also hold:

THE PRESS & JOURNAL

This newspaper is only kept for 6 months. There is no printed index to it however.

Newspapers Online If you logon to the People's Network pcs you can access NewsUk (under Online Reference Services) which allows you to access a wide range of newspapers. If you require help in using this, please ask the staff.
