business into new areas

A grey rectangular sign with a large red letter 'T' is partially visible in the bottom right corner of the image.

When starting or growing your business the right information at the right time is vital.

Who can supply what I need?

Who are my customers?

What's the potential size of my market?

What does the future hold for my sector?

Where can I find the right premises?

Who are my competitors?

Understanding your market, your customers and your competitors is essential. That's where we come in.

The Business Gateway Information Service can help answer these questions.

Our dedicated team are on hand to make sure you find the information that could make a real difference to you and your business.

We subscribe to a wide range of commercial databases including:

- UK consumer market reports
- International consumer and technical market reports
- News articles and trade publications
- UK company reports and lists
- Commercial premises across Scotland
- Statistical and demographic data

We are also experts at sourcing free information online via local and national government sources, industry bodies and commercial providers. We'll show you where to find that all-important data to support your business plan and direct you to other organisations that can help.

There is no charge to use the service and the vast majority of information we provide is also free.
