

Item 7 – Question Time

Response – to Mr George Farlow

In response to your question –

Within the Council's Programme, there is a commitment to actively support a GM-free Highland and I can confirm that there are currently no unregulated GM crops grown in Highland.

We also have a watching brief on policy at EU, UK and Scottish Government level and the Council is a member of the GMO-free European Regions Network.