Private response.

Their appears to be no assessment as to how the development plan process can either help stabilise Gaidhlig or even assist modest growth in speakers' numbers. This discussion is particularl relevant in the case of the crofting issues raised and land use planning matters in Skye - Sleite, Staffin, Kilmuir, etc (and a few mainland areas).

The draft plan could be radical and suggest either a "Gaidhlig village" in a growth area or an "urban Gaeltacht" within the framework of Inbhir Nis (or Portree ?) along the lines of that in Beal Feirste
