4.1 How do you want the West Highland and Islands area to change over the next 10–20 years?

This submission relates to the community of Sleat, Isle of Skye. considered to be one of the most progressive and rurally successful areas of the Highland region. It is well know that the peninsula is home to Sabhal Mor Ostaig, Scotland, National Centre for Gaelic Language and Culture, the new Kilbeg village, the significant estates of Clan Donald Lands Trust, Fearann Eileain Iarmain, a thriving and vitally important tourism sector. The SCC together with the Sleat Community Trust will be submitting a detailed paper to expand on this web based consultation in order to give a detailed analysis on how we see this community evolving over the coming years.

4.4 How can
these assets
and characteristics
best be improved or used to provide economic or community

growth?

As explained above. It is vital that this community of over 800 people does have a significant say in ensuring development is both measured and leads to a positive long term outcome.
