Your chance to vote
16 and 17 year olds register
now for the upcoming local Community Council elections!
Become a Community Councillor

Did you get to vote in last year's independence referendum?

Did it spark your interest in getting involved in your local area?

16 and 17 year olds can vote in local Community Council elections this year AND you can stand as a Community Councillor.

Community Councils bridge the gap between local communities and The Highland Council and act as a voice for their local area. They talk about any issues affecting the community, like new buildings and roads, local services or sports and leisure facilities.

It's important that young people are listened to because you might have a different view about a local issue. If you're registered, you can vote in the Community Council election and you can even nominate yourself to be a Community Councillor.

Fill in this form so that you can cast your vote!
