

should clean muddy boots, etc., at the service point areas. Some sites also have dog wash facilities. Apologies for any confusion caused.

In brief

- Staff at Kinlochewe Club site have lent their support to the Community Out West Trust, a local organisation that was formed after the public toilets in the village were closed last year. The Trust has taken over the day-to-day running of these public amenities, seen by many as essential in an area that is heavily dependent on tourism.

- Club member Carol Kaczor, whose caravan journals have

The new
into the
and un
to the

Simple

www

5