CAMPAIGNING AND SPENDING

CAMPAIGNING

- Use imprints on all your campaign material, including websites (new guidance)
- Comply with Policy - Display of Election Posters
- Posters must not be erected prior to the announcement of election, 14 March 2022, request permission CEX.support@highland.gov.uk
- Comply with planning rules relating to advertising hoardings and large banners.
- Posters are removed 2 weeks after the election.
- Do not produce material that looks like a poll card.
- Do not pay people to display your adverts (unless they display adverts as part of their normal business).

CAMPAIGNING

Campaigners are an essential element of a healthy democracy, but do not bring into question the integrity of the electoral process

Electoral registration/ absent vote applications:

- Ensure forms fully conform to the requirements of electoral law
- Include the ERO's address for the return of forms
- Ensure unaltered applications are sent to ERO within two working days
- Make sure electors understand implications of applying for an absent vote
- Do not encourage postal ballot pack redirection
- Do not encourage electors to appoint a campaigner as proxy

Postal ballot packs:

- Never touch a postal ballot paper
- Never observe electors completing their postal vote.
- Never handle or take any completed ballot paper or postal ballot pack from voters

Candidate spending

- Defined as certain expenditure ‘used for the purposes of the candidate’s election’ starting from the day after the date you officially become a candidate and ending on polling day
- Responsibility of election agent
- Spending limits:
 - At elections on or after 5 May 2022 - £806 + 7 pence per elector in ward on register in force on 1 March 2022
 - reduced for joint candidates
- Must get and keep receipts (over £20)

Campaign spending returns

- Returns due 35 calendar days after result of election.
- Returns made public by Returning Officer
- Failure to submit a spending return is a criminal offence enforceable by police
- No spending will be reimbursed

COVID MEASURES

Covid is unfortunately still with us and we remain vigilant, prepared for the threats it poses and adapt our measures according to Scottish Government and NHS guidelines

Local Government Candidate Diversity Survey Update

All candidates standing for election at the 2022 local council elections are being invited to complete a brief voluntary questionnaire on their demographic characteristics, previous experience and any caring responsibilities. This will help to gather a more complete picture of who stands for election to Scotland's councils.

Candidates have the option to complete the survey on paper (returning by post) or online.

online version of the survey, as well as pdf (printable) versions of the questionnaire and information leaflet are available at:
