Settlement Assessment

Quantity

This compact settlement contains a wide selection of open spaces. Open space provision is dominated by natural/semi-natural greenspace. There is a lack of other functional greenspace within the settlement. As with many settlements in Highland there are good links to the wider countryside providing opportunities for physical activity and recreation.

Accessibility

Due to the compact nature of Kinlochleven there is a good accessibility to a wide range of open spaces and good access to the wider countryside providing further opportunities for recreation.
