

23.0 Workmanship

Key components of achieving the desired standards of buildings are the workmanship and the materials used.

The Highland Council expects the work that is carried out by its contractors to be of the highest standard; should the work which is carried out not be of the highest standard, The Highland Council will request the work to be re-done / corrected.