

28.0 Tools

Any special tools required for the maintenance or overhaul of the M&E building services shall be detailed within the tender submission.

All details of operating handles, handling equipment, test devices etc. required for the operation and routine maintenance of the M&E building services shall be included within the tender submission.