

The Highland Council

The Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997 (as amended) The Town and Country Planning (Development Planning) (Scotland) Regulations 2008

Supplementary Guidance Consultation

The Highland Council has prepared Supplementary Guidance for Small-Scale Wind Turbine Proposals, for consultation. You can view the document by clicking "Planning Consultations" on The Highland Council website www.highland.gov.uk or in your local Highland Council Library or Service Point or at Council Headquarters, Inverness. If you would like to make comments on this document please submit them by email or letter to:

E-mail: devplans@highland.gov.uk

Post: Development Plans Team, The Highland Council, Council Offices, Glenurquhart Road, Inverness, IV3 5NX

The closing date for comments is 4th October 2012.

If you would like any further information or a paper copy of the document, please telephone 01463 702259 or email the address above.

The Environmental Assessment (Scotland) Act 2005

The Highland Council has prepared an Environmental Report for its Onshore Wind Energy Supplementary Guidance, including the draft Supplementary Guidance for Small-Scale Wind Turbine Proposals referred to and available as above. The Environmental Report (together with the Onshore Wind Energy Supplementary Guidance - April 2011 and March 2012 versions, and reports of consultation undertaken, for reference) is available to view at Council Headquarters, Inverness and online at www.highland.gov.uk from 23rd August 2012 for a period of 6 weeks. During this time expressions of opinion on the content of the Environmental Report are welcomed and can be made in writing, by email or letter to:

E-mail: devplans@highland.gov.uk

Post: Development Plans Team, The Highland Council, Council Offices, Glenurquhart Road, Inverness, IV3 5NX

The closing date for expressions of opinion is 4th October 2012.

If you have any questions regarding the Environmental Report please contact a member of the Development Plans Team on (01463) 702827 or devplans@highland.gov.uk.

Date of notice: 23 August 2012