

Item 11 - Question Time

Response to Mr G Phillips

Supporting the economy of fragile areas of the Highlands will be undertaken through a number of measures including the Administration's priority of the roll out of superfast broadband and mobile connectivity.

In addition support for land reform and for small businesses through Highland Opportunity Ltd and Business Gateway will remain important. The new Leader programme for 2015-20 will also help the economy of fragile areas.