

this regard, the Council's redesign process would continue to consider the use of arm's length organisations within ten options for service delivery.

Thereafter, the Committee otherwise NOTED the national report in the local context as circulated.

The meeting ended at 11.10am.