

We welcome and want to get it right for our Armed Forces Community

Serving, Veteran & Reservist Families

Your children & young people matter to us at The Highland Council

In Highland we are proud of our education system.

We want to welcome and get it right for every child and young person in their education, health and wellbeing so they can be and do their best.

“The Highland Council has a close working relationship with Armed Forces Families and we are proud that we are viewed by the military in Scotland as one of the leading Local Authorities in the implementation of the Armed Forces Community Covenant. We intend to maintain our involvement at this level”.
Councillor Roddy Balfour, Armed Forces Champion, Highland Council

Please consider telling your school that you are from a Serving, Veteran or Reservist family.

It will really help the school and all staff provide the best possible support to your child or young person. We understand that there can be times when they or you feel some extra support could be helpful—if we know we can help, click here for a helpful leaflet. We focus on building strengths and protective factors: developing resilience. This means building on their strengths and the support in their lives to help them manage any problems.

Highland Council has signed the Armed Forces Covenant which makes a promise to you and your children to strive to get it right so that no disadvantage is experienced by a serving, veteran or reservist family.

In Highland there is the Military Liaison Group (Education). This group provides a unique partnership of services and agencies that come together regularly to plan and ensure support for children from Armed Forces Families within an educational context. 3 SCOTS, 7 SCOTS and Poppy Scotland represent your needs on this group amongst other agencies.
