

STANDARDS AND QUALITY REPORT AITHISG INBHEAN IS CÀILEACHD

2024-2025

Sgoil Stafainn - Staffin Primary School

Introduction: Local and National Context

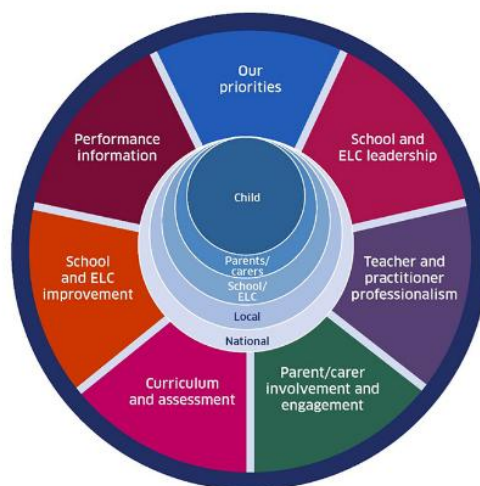

Ro-ràdh: Co-theacsa Ionadail agus Nàiseanta

This Standards and Quality Report is influenced by both Highland and national priorities. These can be summarised as follows:

Highland Priorities

National Improvement Framework Priorities

Entitlement, Excellence & Equity:

We will raise attainment and achievement for all, especially for children and young people from disadvantaged circumstances, including rural deprivation. We will focus relentlessly on improving standards and the quality of learning and teaching, to ensure that entitlement, equity and excellence are delivered across the system.

Empowerment & Leadership:

We will develop leadership skills at all levels of the system, for now and the future, building a culture of empowerment and professional capital.

Relationships:

We will maximise health and wellbeing for all children and young people, to give them the best possible start in life. We will ensure every child and young person feels part of the community they live in.

Opportunity:

We will maximise opportunities for our children and young people, and for the wider Highland community and its visitors, through the provision of high-quality services.

The key priorities outlined in the National Improvement Framework are:

- Placing the human rights and needs of every child and young person at the centre of education
- Improvement in children and young people's health and wellbeing
- Closing the attainment gap between the most and least disadvantaged children and young people
- Improvement in skills and sustained, positive school-leaver destinations for all young people
- Improvement in attainment, particularly in literacy and numeracy.

Self-evaluation

To support self-evaluation, quality indicators from the national evaluative framework *How Good Is Our School?*⁴ are referenced.

We are pleased to present our Standards and Quality Report for Session 2024-25. This report provides important information regarding our school's progress to date and our next steps in school improvement.

Self-evaluation for self-improvement is at the heart of what we do. We continue to develop our practice in making robust use of evidence as a basis for judgements regarding the impact of our work on our learners. All staff understand that self-evaluation is an integral aspect of our approach to continuous improvement through addressing the 3 key questions:

- How well are we doing?
- How do we know?
- What are we going to do now?

Throughout the year we continuously evaluate what we do and how it makes a difference to our learners. We want to know what is working well for our school community and what needs further improvement. We inform decision making and actions through a continuous process of looking inwards, outwards and forwards.

Looking inwards - starts with those working with our children and young people

We focus on the impact on outcomes for learners. Our self-evaluation processes triangulate information, data, people's views and observation of practice to measure impact and inform planning for improvement.

Looking outwards - learning from others

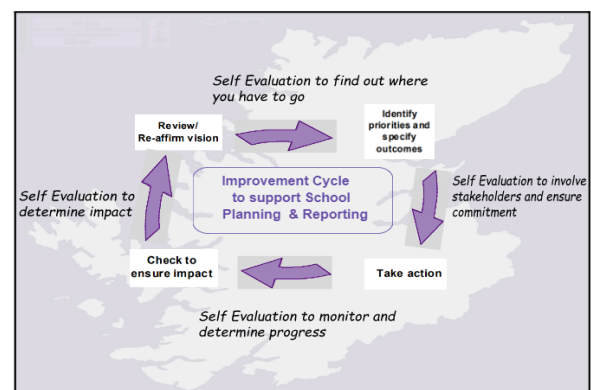

Looking to others for new ideas that challenge our practice and support continuous improvement allows us to learn from what works and what doesn't. This includes practice in other schools, learning communities and learning from educational research.

Looking forwards - creating a vision and planning for implementation

Through leadership at all levels, we anticipate challenges and explore creative solutions. This helps us to create an aspirational vision for our school which shapes our actions and provides a focus for improvement.

Our children and young people are actively consulted and involved in this process. We also give staff, parents/carers, and other partners the opportunity to participate in discussions and activities to shape our improvement journey.

When we develop our improvement plan, we use key questions at scheduled review times throughout the session to know how well we are progressing towards achieving these positive outcomes and changes.

Together we are working hard to ensure the Highlands is the best place for children and young people to grow up safely, learn, develop and achieve.

With positive experiences, our children and young people will always see the Highlands as home.

Le eòlasan deimhinneach, bidh ar cloinn is ar n-òigridh daonnan a' faicinn na Gàidhealtachd mar dhachaigh.

We have had no exclusions this year.

Sgoil Stafainn is located in a rural setting serving the local community of Staffin on the Isle of Skye.

There are 35 children attending the school and 9 children in nursery, ranging from N3 - P7. In English Medium, P1 - 7 are taught together in a single multi-stage class, while Gaelic Medium have a P1-4 class and a P5-7 class. There is a separate nursery for 3 and 4 year olds.

The headteacher has overall leadership responsibility for Staffin Primary School and Kilmuir Primary School. Staff and children from both schools work together regularly.

As the school roll comprises a small number of children, attainment and progress will be expressed in 'overall' statements, rather than specific year groups or Curriculum for Excellence levels. This is to ensure the identity of individuals is not disclosed.

Overall, attainment across the school in literacy and English and numeracy and mathematics is very good. Children achieve appropriate CfE levels in literacy and numeracy and, across the school, less than half the children are exceeding nationally expected levels. Most children who face barriers to learning are making good progress towards meeting their individual targets.

Overall children are making the following progress:

Reading	Writing	Listening and talking	Numeracy
Good progress	Good progress	Good progress	Good progress

Gaelic Medium (delete if not relevant):

These projects are linked to the vision and priorities for Scottish Education based on delivering excellence and equity. Parent/Carer information is available here.

School Priority:

Improving Numeracy

Purpose:

This project has been developed in response to dips in attainment in Numeracy across Highland.

Progress:

- We have continued to raise attainment in numeracy in line with stretch aims.

Impact:

- ✓ We have seen an increase in pupil attainment in numeracy. This is evident in Highland Numeracy diagnostic assessments, SOFA,

Coimearsnachd, Cruthachalachd, Càirdeas - Community, Creativity, Friendship,

SNSA and MCNG assessment results. A few children have gone from Below Average to Above Average results.

| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Professional learning - All practitioners (including EYPs) engaged in professional learning with the Numeracy Support Officer. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Teachers and EYPs have a greater knowledge and confidence in planning numeracy activities, supported by the use of the authority resources. |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The sgoil-àraich and the school work together to plan interesting numeracy activities for children. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Pupil Focus groups, Lesson observations and sgoil-àraich engagement observations have shown that active learning strategies are in use in almost all classes. |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All teachers engaged in professional learning around using data to inform planning. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Teachers are using assessment results to track progress and plan interventions, supported by PSAs. These are recorded in 'Big Questions' after Termly attainment meetings between the HT and Class Teacher. |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Number Sprinkles Planner in use across the school. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Teachers are using the number sprinkles approach, which is helping to improve pupil confidence. Almost all pupils said they were supported and challenged in class. |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The gap between the most and least disadvantaged children and young people has closed, in line with The highland Council stretch aims. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Through the use of interventions such as the 5 minute numeracy box and precision teaching materials, we have seen the gap close between the most and least disadvantaged children. This is tracked in P&A and in our school tracker. ✓ Satisfactory progress was made in this area. |

Next steps:

- ✓ We will continue to work with the Highland Council Numeracy Officer to support attainment and to ensure consistency across the schools next year.
- ✓ Teachers, PSAs and EYPs across the cluster will continue to work together to ensure results from assessments directly inform planning and support pupils.
- ✓ We will continue to look at ways to support learners including using Nessy for maths and purchasing support trolleys.
- ✓ To continue to build time into our WTA for staff training, so that all staff are aware of the new Highland Council strategies and materials on SharePoint and google drives.

School Priority:

Improve approaches to Learning & Teaching

Purpose:

Ensure consistency of learning & teaching, based upon Bruce Robertson's 12 key elements, in The Teaching Delusion.

Progress:

- Staff have continued to take positive steps in improving learning, teaching and assessment approaches across the school.
- We have completed our Teaching sprints based on Bruce Robertson's 'Power up your Pedagogy' and reflected on lessons using our 'lesson evaluation toolkit.' The Northern Alliance toolkit and Continuing Professional Development sessions have supported Pedagogy across the Cluster.
- Staff interrogated data to support and challenge pupils. We have used PSAs to lead interventions. We have used our assessment and parental engagement calendar to drive improvement.
- Practitioners continue to use total immersion approaches effectively in sgoil-àraich. These include commentary, songs and role-play.
- Practitioners in sgoil-àraich are using stories and tuff trays to support language acquisition.

Impact:

- ✓ Almost all children experience high-quality learning across the curriculum, as observed by HT and CLO in lesson observations.
- ✓ The 12 key elements of lessons are evident across the school. Pupils are able to talk about their learning and most pupils can discuss careers and meta-skills. Teachers have appreciated being able to look at specific aspects of learning and teaching and link them to reading.
- ✓ Interventions are happening daily and are scheduled. We are identifying trends and planning interventions to support pupils.
- ✓ Children are curious, independent and confident while learning through total immersion play. They benefit from a bright, nurturing environment and caring EYPs.
- ✓ EYPs use children's ideas to plan a range of interesting and stimulating experiences. Parental comments show that children and parents are happy in sgoil-àraich.
- ✓ Satisfactory progress was made in this area.

Next steps:

- Staff will continue to commit to regular CPD sessions based on Learning & Teaching.
- Next year we will include a literacy focus in our SIP.
- Staff across the cluster will continue to work and plan learning together.
- We will build in more opportunities for the ASG to work together.

School Priority:

Assessment and Moderation – Moderation Collaborative

Purpose:

To develop consistency across the cluster.

Progress:

- Data shows that all staff are using the tools to support moderation and inform learning and teaching.
- All staff will have analysed NSA and SOFA data and have planned interventions for those children not on track.
- School tracking data will indicate increasingly accurate judgements in overall Literacy and Numeracy across the schools involved.
- Almost all staff report improvement in teacher confidence in making ACEL judgements.
- In sgoil-àraich, staff are discussing Developmental Overviews regularly and supporting children to achieve their full potential.

Impact:

- ✓ Staff have used a range of tools and trackers to support moderation. Staff have attended moderation training and have also joined the HC Gaelic Moderation group.
- ✓ All staff have reflected on results and interventions are well planned.
- ✓ Our judgements are more robust by using tools such as the end of year target sheets. Tracking is discussed in attainment meetings and achievement of a level evidence is reviewed.
- ✓ Staff are gaining confidence in make ACEL judgements, as seen in staff survey results.
- ✓ Sgoil-àraich staff are supporting individual needs and tracking learning with high quality observations and in developmental overviews. Staff are also tracking language acquisition.
- ✓ Good progress was made in this area.

Next steps:

- Continue to use Highland Council tools to support moderation, such as the End of Year Targets, Literacy Roadmap and Learning conversations sheets.
- Build in ASG moderation into our assessment calendar.
- Develop our school tracking to include spelling
- Sgoil-àraich staff will visit other settings to moderate learning journals
