Digital Resources for Community Council social media posts

Stand Again

Have you previously stood for a Community Council before?

Enjoyed the experience?

Want to continue making change in the local area?

Then self-nominate yourself as a candidate for the Community Council Election by completing the online form available at www.highland.gov.uk/ccelections

#CCHighland2026 and #CCElectionsHighland26

Simple Process

Things that you can do in 5 minutes:

Making a cup of tea [TICK EMOJI]

Cook a pancake [TICK EMOJI]

Scroll through [SOCIAL MEDIA] [TICK EMOJI]

If you can do all three things, then you can self-nominate yourself as a candidate for the Community Council Election by completing the online form available at www.highland.gov.uk/ccelections

#CCHighland2026 and #CCElectionsHighland26

New People

Community Councils across Highland needs new fresh ideas!

If you are aged over 16 and a registered elector and want to be the voice of your community and make a difference.

Then self-nominate yourself as a candidate for the Community Council Election by completing the online form available at www.highland.gov.uk/ccelections

#CCHighland2026 and #CCElectionsHighland26

Community Council Elections
Taghaidhean Comhairle Coimhearsnachd

Benefits of a Community Council

Community Councils are the heart of a community it allows those to have a say in their local area, decide matters such as planning and licensing.

If you want to have a voice and make change in your local area, then self-nominate yourself as a candidate for the Community Council Election by completing the online form available at www.highland.gov.uk/ccelections

#CCHighland2026 and #CCElectionsHighland26

Community Council Elections
Taghaidhean Comhairle Coimhearsnachd

Still time to stand

Want to make your voice heard?

Want to make a change in your local area?

There is still time to stand as a candidate for your local Community Council.

Then self-nominate yourself as a candidate for the Community Council Election by completing the online form available at www.highland.gov.uk/ccelections

#CCHighland2026 and #CCElectionsHighland26